by Annabelle Shake

While talking, we don't use only our lips and tongue. Our whole body communicates feelings and intentions. Only some signals are conscious. These are different in different cultures. For example, don't try to give a Greek a high five. This would be very rude. Nodding to agree and shaking your head to disagree are common gestures around the world. But in Bulgaria their meanings are opposite. There are also signals we use without even knowing it. The way people listen tells you what they think. For example, how do you know if they like or dislike your ideas? 'Read' it in their eyes! When they are happy with what you say, their eyes open wider. By contrast, if they find you boring and irritating, their eyes become narrower.

An honest speaker keeps their hands open. But if the person uses them to cover their mouth, the situation is not good. This means the person wants to lie! Liars also touch their noses or necks without knowing it. So, watch out for these signs!

Przykład: The text tells us what we communicate without any words.

1 When we want to say something, we use not only words, but also _____ .

2 It isn't _____ to 'give a high five' in Greece.

3 When you shake your head in Bulgaria, it means you _____ with the speaker.

4 The listeners' eyes tell us whether _____ what we say or not.

5 A dishonest speaker _____ his/her mouth.
